Subscriptions to the fund for building a new cement walk from the Tilden place to West cemetery are not coming in very rapidly. The trustees of the village are anxious to do this work at an early date, and whoever thinks of making a contribution to the enterprise should do so as soon as possible.

LOGAN HOUSE RAIDED.

Sheriffs Sanford and Rowley Successful—Proprietor Arrested.

Deputy Sheriffs Noble J. Sanford and Fred E. Rowley made a successful raid on the Logan House Wednesday evening, securing a small quantity of liquor which one of the employees of the hotel was trying to throw away. The sheriffs had secured a search warrant and arrived unexpectedly about nine o'clock. When they made their way to the kitchen they noted an employee rushing into the pantry. They followed in time to save part of the contents of a pitcher. The seized liquor was said to be whisky.

Thursday morning Mrs. John H. Burns of the hotel was arraigned before Judge Donoway of the Municipal Court and was charged with keeping liquor with intent to sell. She was held in $500 bail. This morning her trial was begun, Allen R. Sturtevant, state's attorney, prosecuting for the state, and I. H. LaFleur representing Mrs. Burns.

There has been a good deal of talk about liquor selling since the death of Harry Brousseau last Saturday. Some have alleged that it was "dope" in liquor which was responsible for the young man's condition, and the famous case of Dr. Bisbee of Bristol has been recalled. There is consequently a good deal of excitement over the trial this morning.

At the trial this morning a jury was selected. Most of the men chosen live in Cornwall or New Haven. Their names are: Ned Mathews, F. G. Brookins, C. L. Nutting, Geo. Everest, Geo. Palmer, C. A. Sprigg, C. L. Wetherell, F. L. Shackett, M. C. Peck, C. F. Benedict, C. W. Otis, Charles H. Lane. The case is continued this afternoon.

MIDDLEBURY LOSES TO SPRINGFIELD.

In the most interesting game of the year up to date Middlebury forced Springfield into ten innings to win on Porter field last Friday. A large crowd was out to witness the first baseball game of Junior Week, and a good game it was to witness. Springfield had won from the University of Vermont on the day before by a score of 19-0.

Springfield got a two bagger in the first, but the runner went no further, the side retiring on two infield drives handled by Bowers and Dewhurst and a strike out. Middlebury started things at once, Bower getting a hit between first and second. Brickett sacrificed, Bresnahan got on by an error and Aylward's long fly enabled Bowers to score. Bresnahan stole second and third, but was left there at the close of the inning. Middlebury got a run in each the second and the third, and held Springfield scoreless through the first four innings. In the fifth a base on balls, a single, and a home run netted Springfield two runs and one in the sixth tied the score. The tie lasted through the seventh and eighth, but in the ninth a pass, a single, a sacrifice hit and an error gave Springfield a lead of two. Bullis, a pinch hitter for Middlebury got a double, and a single by Brickett and one by Bresnahan tied the score. In the tenth Springfield got two more and in her half Middlebury was unable to score, giving Springfield the game.

Crippen was in his usual regular hot weather form and kept the Springfield team guessing, getting five strike outs against four by Brown, the visiting pitcher. Sears took third base in the 5th inning when Bresnahan sprained his ankle. Brickett caught a good game. The score:

JUNIOR PROM.

The Junior Prom, the largest formal dance of the year, was given Friday night in the McCullough gymnasium. There were ninety-six couples present, the largest number attending a dance in the gymnasium for some time. The hall was handsomely decorated with the Junior colors, royal purple and white. McEnelly's singing orchestra of Orange, Mass., furnished the music, which was of a remarkably high order. A large number of people from out of town were present. The patrons and patronesses were President and Mrs. Jonn M. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Perley C. Voter, Mr. and Mrs. Luther I. Bonney and Miss Eleanor S. Ross.

MIDDLEBURY BOY PROMOTED.

The Bridgeport Telegram of Monday, May 8, contains the following account of the promotion of Charles J. Halpin, son of Michael Halpin, of this town. Mr. Halpin is employed by the Remington Arms Co. of Bridgeport, Conn.:

"Charles J. Halpin of the cost department was transferred to the production department on Tuesday. Mr. Halpin is a native of Middlebury, Vermont, an accountant as well as a draftsman and a knowledge of these two professions makes a valuable asset for production work. The position vacated by William B. Cooney is the one which Mr. Halpin will take over."

MIDD. H. S. 3, BURL'TON H. S. 2.

A fast, exciting and close game of baseball at Burlington, resulting in a victory for the Middlebury team, should call out the fans for Tuesday, May 16, when Burlington High school plays at Middlebury.

The game at Burlington was full of snappy plays, close decisions and fine ball playing. Middlebury was ahead all the time, but it took hard playing to keep there.

BISHOP HENDERSON TO PREACH.

Bishop Theodore S. Henderson of Chattanooga, Tenn., will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock. The service will be a union service, to which all are invited. The young people of the community and college are especially invited. Bishop Henderson is a man in the prime of life and has devoted most of his work during the last fifteen years to work among college students and young peoples' organizations. He has been the college preacher for special sessions in well nigh all the large universities and most of the important colleges in this country, and has engagements of like nature for more than a year in advance. He is a man of commanding personality and of unusual pulpit ability. It will be a rare opportunity for the people of Middlebury to hear one of the foremost moral and religious leaders of the day.
